

Monday Update

September 22, 2008

Volume 2, Issue 6

LOOKING FOR LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Office of Student Orientation and Leadership Development is now accepting applications for the 2009 Emerging Leaders Course!

This class is designed to provide students with a strong base of knowledge and experience as they prepare to assume responsibility for the governance of student life on campus and in their communities upon graduation. Additionally, the class will provide students with a strong theoretical background in contemporary leadership theory. The primary purpose of this course is to facilitate learning opportunities and experiences which will provide students with the knowledge, attitudes, and skills necessary to assume leadership positions on campus. This class will also help students to gain a better understanding of leadership and its application to their daily lives as students and citizens. In addition, students will learn a great deal about their personal leadership style, their peers, and the University throughout the semester.

Apply online at <http://sold.utk.edu/el/> until 5 pm on Sept. 30th.

UT HONORS PROGRAM

The University of Tennessee offers its most academically accomplished and exceptionally talented students a nationally distinctive system of honors programs and opportunities. UT's honors programs provide a range of academic challenges, enhancements, and enrichment opportunities that facilitate the honors students' quest to realize their full academic potential. UT honors students also enjoy substantial scholarship support through the guaranteed and competitive scholarship award process, as well as numerous additional academic privileges and benefits. UT offers many paths to an honors education, coupling a range of honors programs and a growing diversity of honors benefits and opportunities. The flexibility of this system of honors programs is designed to meet student interests in every undergraduate degree program and at every step in their undergraduate experience.

Honors Research Grant Program

The Chancellor's Honors Program will host informational sessions regarding the Honors Research Grant Program on Tuesday, September 23, 4:00-5:00 p.m. and Wednesday, September 24, 4:00-5:00 p.m. (UC 225). All students in good standing with recognized college and department honors programs are eligible to apply for funding. The Honors Research Grant Program distributes $100,000 annually in support of research and creative achievement. The application deadline is October 15, 2008.

<http://honors.utk.edu/current/researchgrant/grant.html>

CAMPUS ANNOUNCEMENTS

September 22

Black Cultural Programming Committee

Features

"Mrs. Debbie Allen"

Alumni Memorial Building
Cox Auditorium

7PM

September 25

Educational Advancement Program

Strategies for Academic Success Workshop

"Note Taking"

3:00PM-5:00PM

UC Room 237

September 26

Last Day to Drop with a

"WP/WF" grade

1st Session

Courses Only

